Dear Mr. Wells
8 Feb 65

Dear Mr. Wells:

I was pleased to have one of our officers, Mr. [redacted] [redacted], selected last year as the winner of the William A.
Jolly Memorial Award, and welcome the opportunity of nominating for the 1965 Award another of our outstanding young executives, Mr. [redacted]

STAT

As Security Chief of a large organization in this Agency, Mr. [redacted] has the responsibility for the planning, the development, and the direction of a global security program of great significance to this Agency and to the security of our country. His role as the principal architect of our security training program and his leadership in the development of security measures and controls used by United States agencies engaged in foreign intelligence activities are worthy of recognition. Mr. [redacted] stands in one of constant growth and exemplary accomplishments and he possesses a high potential for continued contributions to the field of public administration.

I wish to express my appreciation to the Board of Trustees of the Foundation for giving public recognition to the accomplishments of young employees in the Federal Government.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director
